Agenda:

Founders Day: Vendor Booths will cost $30. We expect to have vendors, an art show, an heirloom display, a cardboard car show, the parade and car show. Rabbit in the Hat will have free magic shows in the courtyard from 10:30-2:30 and magicians inside also.

There will be a design contest for a new town logo which can go on t-shirts to be sold at Founders Day and other events. We'll give a $250 prize to the creator of the logo which is chosen. No deadline has been set. We're still looking for entries.

We'll be scheduling a day to repair and paint the benches downtown. We may plant the downtown flowerpots then too. We were originally going to do this April 13, but need a new date. Clark and Marcia May said they'd donate $100 toward this.

Hugh Callery brought magnets of the old school for us to sell. The all school reunion hasn't happened for a couple of years. It has been on Memorial weekend in the past. Hugh suggested adding it to Founders Day. Those present thought it was a great idea. Hugh will work with us on the details after the dust from this Founders Day settles. 918-274-1229; hcallery@hotmail.com

The doctors are offering free sports physicals on May 31.

Kasey Shaver, LG Chief of Police, said that he will be starting monthly “Coffee with a Cop” at Wonder City Coffee.

The next Chamber meeting will be May 21 at 6:00p.m. at the Wilma Cowan Building 114 E Main.
